

Meet Sam.

Sam is a passionate conservative. He's also saving for retirement. He could be sitting next to you. Unfortunately, like many other conservatives, Sam has a problem.

Sam recently boycotted Target over the bathroom issue.

Sam blocks pornography from the Dish Network for his family

Sam actively protests outside of Planned Parenthood.

Sam values the sanctity of marriage.

Sam owns Target in his son's college savings account.

Sam owns the Dish Network in his Vanguard S&P500 ETF included in his IRA.

Sam owns Verizon in his 401k which actively donates funds to Planned Parenthood.

Sam owns AT&T which funds dozens of LGBT parades with shareholder profits.

Do you see a problem here?

Don't be unaware like Sam. Your investments should reinforce your values, not contradict them.

Get the transparency you deserve. Read the back for more details.

Screening data sourced from inspireinsight.com as of Oct 2018. visit www.inspireinsight.com to learn more.

What if you could instantly find out if your investments contradict what you value?

Now, you can.

- Complete Investment Transparency
- Screen Stocks, Mutual Funds, IRAs, And More
- Real Time Updates
- Build A Portfolio And Track Over Time
- 100% Free

 insight

inspireinsight.com